SRI M. VEERAPPA MOILY.—I can furnish the reply. In fact, the Southern Regional Committee. Madras has constituted the Expert Committee with the persons whom I have already mentioned. In fact, the Government is quite serious about upgrading of the school and we have included it as a scheme in the sixth five year plan and the estimated cost of this entire project is Rs. 67.75 lakhs So, the Government is quite positive with regard to upgrading this School of Mines into a college. So, it will be a reality. Immediately the Committee submits its report, we are going to have this college and we are waiting for the report and we will definitely request the Committee to expedite their report immediately. we will study the report.

SRI C. M. ARUMUGHAM.—The mine is the deepest mine in the world and the cost of upgrading the school is very less and further, there is no Mining Engineering College anywhere in the southern States. Will the Government seriously consider and take a decision in this year to upgrade the School of Mines as a Mining College ?

SRI M. VEERAPPA MOILY.—Mr. Speaker Sir, I too understand the concern of the Member to upgrade this school because tha techology which is obtained from the K. G. F. Mines is one of the best in the conntry. So, it is necessary that we will have to upgrade the School into a college and we will definitely take serious note of the concern of the Member and take immediate steps to see that the Committee submits its report and we will upgrade this School of Mines into a college as early as possible.
